

Please do something to stop the moral decay projected by the entertainment world that led to the Superbowl halftime show. It wasn't just the last shock. it was the entire performance. The lyrics. The grinding. The dry sex! This isn't about freedom of speech. This is about money. I'm embarrassed to think that the rest of the world saw this as an American show.